

Press release

Appointments to Advisory Committee on Bond Market Development

Friday, January 29, 2010

The Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau today (January 29) announced the establishment of the Advisory Committee on Bond Market Development and the following appointments to the Advisory Committee from February 1, 2010 to June 30, 2012.

Chairman

Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury

Ex-officio Members

Permanent Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury (Financial Services)

Under Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury

Representative of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority

Representative of the Securities and Futures Commission

Non-official Members

Mr Ignatius Chan Tze-ching

Ms Anita Fung Yuen-mei

Mr Frank Kwong

Mr Lawrence Lam

Professor Raymond So Wai-man

Ms Sally Wong Chi-ming

The Advisory Committee on Bond Market Development is established to advise the Government on matters relating to the promotion of the further and sustainable development of the local bond market. It is appointed and chaired by the Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury. Apart from ex-officio members, the Advisory Committee comprises non-official members from the market and academia.