The Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury, Professor K C Chan, said, “We welcome the new appointments. I am confident that with their expertise and experience, the appointees will contribute to the effective operation of the Tribunal and the Process Review Committee.”

The Tribunal (previously named the Clearing and Settlement Systems Appeals Tribunal) is a statutory tribunal established under the Ordinance to hear appeals from persons aggrieved by any reviewable decision of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) made under the Ordinance.

The Process Review Committee is an independent committee established by the Chief Executive to review the processes and procedures adopted by the HKMA in making decisions relating to or affecting the designated systems in which the HKMA has a legal or beneficial interest.

The above appointments were gazetted today (October 28).
